

Equine Clinic Altforweiler, Saarland, Germany

The Equine clinic is seeking an ACVIM/ECEIM - Diplomate (or eligible). Candidates with a completed residency program or multiple years of experience in internal medicine are also encouraged to apply. We are looking for a nice, team playing person.

The position is declared as head of the internal medicine department in our facility. The successful candidate is responsible for internal medicine cases exclusively and should have an interest in teaching assistant veterinarians.

Our young team actual consists of 9 veterinarians (including Diplomate ECVS and specialists in Equine medicine / Fachtierärzte für Pferde und Chirurgie) and emphasizes a good working climate.

We offer a high and diverse internal medicine caseload with state of the art in house diagnostic opportunities (including laboratory, high resolution ultrasound, digital radiography and endoscopy). We act as primary and referral center providing high-end elective and emergency patient care.

Salary of the successful candidate will correlate with experience. We are interested in a long-term cooperation.

Our location in the so-called "Dreiländereck" in the south-western part of Germany is close to the luxembourgish and french border. The region offers a great variety of leisure time facilities and a high quality of living (including fine French food, cultural proposals, beautiful nature).

Please feel free to contact us for further questions. Applicants should send their letter of intent, a current cv and references (if applicable) that can be contacted to the following address: C.
