

Large Animal Internal Medicine Consultant

Part-Time (Freelance)

Zoetis Global Diagnostics

OVERVIEW:

Zoetis Global Diagnostics is currently seeking a board-certified ECEIM or ACVIM (LAIM) diplomate to work with us on a part-time (freelance) basis to provide consulting services to our customers. The consultant will be required to provide advice to Zoetis Diagnostics customers by email regarding the management of clinical cases. This may include assisting customers with the interpretation of results, advising on the next diagnostic steps for cases and advising on ongoing case management. We are particularly interested in colleagues who would be comfortable consulting on both equines and other large animal species (bovine, ovine etc.). Hours are flexible to accommodate your schedule.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Provide internal medicine advice by email to customers. Additional opportunities to participate in live consultations via Zoom may become available in the future.
- Work alongside other boarded specialists across the world to provide advice to customers in various global markets.
- Foster a positive, collaborative relationship within the Zoetis team and with our customers.

LOCATION: Remote (working from home)

QUALIFICATIONS: ECEIM or ACVIM (LAIM) diploma (board-eligible colleagues considered)

KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE:

- Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Experience with Microsoft Office and other basic computer skills
- Professional working proficiency in English is required.
